3. The highest bidder shall have no ground for complaint if the sale be not confirmed, or if there be delay in the confirmation of the sale.

4. The party who is declared, subject to confirmation of the sale as aforesaid, to be the purchaser, shall be required to deposit immediately 25 per centum on the amount of his bid and, in default of such deposit, the occupancy right shall forthwith again be put up and sold.

5. The full amount of the purchase-money shall be paid by the purchaser before sunset of the fifteenth day from that on which the auction takes place, or if the said fifteenth day be a Sunday or other authorised holiday, then before sunset of the first office day after such fifteenth day.

6. In default of payment within the said period of the full amount of the purchase-money, the deposit, after defraying thereout the expenses of the sale shall be forfeited to Government and occupancy right shall be resold, and the defaulting purchaser shall forfeit all claims to the occupancy right, or to any part of the sum for which it may be subsequently sold.

7. If the sale is not confirmed, the purchaser shall be entitled to receive back his deposit or his purchase-money, as the case may be.

8. If the proceeds of the resale which is held by the reason of the purchaser's default be less than the price bid by such defaulting purchaser, the difference shall be recoverable from him by the Deputy Commissioner as an arrear of Land Revenue.

9. The purchaser shall previously to entering upon occupation of the land, obtain the permission in writing of the Amildar or Deputy Amildar under section 58 of the Land Revenue Code. Such permission will only be accorded on the purchaser's paying Local Fund cess at the rate of one anna in the rupee on the amount of the purchase-money. If the land is occupied without such permission being first obtained, the occupation will be liable to be treated as unauthorised under section 58 of the Land Revenue Code.

It is to be distinctly understood that the Government are not responsible for errors of description or in estimated extent of the land.

10. The purchaser will have to pay the assessment of the Land and Local Fund cess thereon commencing with the year. Provided that, if without his own fault, he does not obtain possession of the land in due time to make use of it that year, he shall not be chargeable with the assessment and Local Fund cess thereof till the next following year.

11. The purchasers are further liable to the conditions laid down in Government Proceedings No. C. 93-120—K.S.S. 570-597, dated 8th June 1931, as amended by G. O. No. 786-810—K. S. S. 2611-35, dated the 26th November 1931, G. O. No. 1365-8—K. S. S. 4634-58, dated 23rd February 1932 and subsequent amendments that Government may choose to make from time to time regarding the system of cultivation known as the Block System, the rates of contribution payable as noted in the schedule against each plot to be sold, the method of payment thereof and the interest payable thereon the water-rate and cesses leviable thereon, etc., described in the annexure ..... Form A to the above G. O. No. C. 93-120—K. S. S. 570-597, dated 8th June 1931, and modified by later Government Orders.

12. The purchaser will also be liable to pay the Phod charges in addition to the bid amount (that will be intimated at the time of sale) as a condition precedent to the occupancy is confirmed.

13. The lowest bid acceptable will not be less than the amount of contribution fixed on the plot.
